

The following children are listed on Southampton University Archive list (MS404) of names connected to the Brampton colony and mentioned in the Carlisle Journal. However, no editions of the newspaper are listed and Southampton University Archives could not provide any further information as to the source of this list or about the identity of the compiler. The names are included here, with supplementary information from Gerald Hoare, as a list of children who may possibly have had a connection with the Brampton colony.
