

Plaque Unveiling - Lancing Library - A Report by Jim Jump.

A plaque was unveiled on 20th May at Lancing Library in Sussex, on the site of the Penstone House colonia.

Pictured below with Jim is Lancing Parish Councillor Lee Cowan (Labour), who initiated the proposal for a plaque.

My mother, Cayetana Lozano Díaz, was one of the señoritas at Penstone House, where she met my father, James Jump, a Worthing Herald reporter and one of the volunteers at the colonia, in the summer of 1937.

He later joined the British Battalion of the International Brigades in Spain. I recounted my family history in a short speech to the people assembled outside Lancing Library for the unveiling.

The other speaker was Manuel Moreno of the BCA'37UK.
