

Save the Children!
The history of the Basque Exile in
Greta Britain 1937 – 1940
Gregorio Arrien

In 1988 Gregorio Arrien published his first book on the Basque children. He went on to write two further books with the last being published in 2014. He died in 2018. He lived a long life and dedicated a large part of it to researching and writing about the children. He has until now only been published in Spanish. What we know about the children and their supporters we know because of the great work Arrien, Adrian Bell and Natalia Benjamin who have produced.

I am, with the BCA and other partners, making an English edition of Save the Children! happen. This is not an easy project but progress has been made and agreements set in place. If you would like to see an English edition of this book happen you can help in a very easy way and it relates to the money that is needed for translation and other costs. Some has been raised so far but a big effort to find individual pledges and donations from organisations starts now. This is a form of crowd funding which is a common way of raising money for charitable objectives but a pledge from you is all that is required at this stage.

Please do not send money but if you would like to make a pledge, or to find out how you could support this most important project then contact me at simonmartinez1937@yahoo.com

¡mil gracias!
