

CILAVS and the Instituto Cervantes, London, warmly invite you to this conference

SPANISH EXILES IN THE UK: HISTORY AND LEGACIES

12 November, 2019

10AM-2PM

Keynes Library

School of Arts

Birkbeck, University of London

43 Gordon Square

London WC1H 0PD

Commemorating the 80th Anniversary of the beginning of Spanish Republican Exile at the end of the Spanish Civil War, this event brings together scholars and artists to discuss the presence and legacies of Spanish Republican exiles in Britain within a longer history of Spanish political exiles taking refuge in this country.

PROGRAMME

10h-10h15 Welcome

10h15-11h Daniel Muñoz Sempere (King's College London): The 19th C Liberal and Romantic Spanish Exile in the UK.

11h-11h45 Eva Nieto McAvoy (Cardiff University): Republican Exiles in the UK.

11h45-12h Coffee break

12h-12h45 Mari Paz Balibrea (Birkbeck, University of London): Democratic Spain and Republican Exile: The long journey home.

12h45-14h Updating the Memory of Exile: Round table with artists Sonia Boué, María Mencía and Lala Isla. Moderated by Ignacio Peyró, Director of the Instituto Cervantes, London.

All welcome but booking here necessary.

This event is a collaboration between CILAVS and the Instituto Cervantes, London, and it is part of a week-long series of events organised by the Instituto Cervantes to mark the 80th Anniversary of the end of the Spanish Civil War, which led to the exile of thousands of Republican Spanish citizens: Skies So Unlike Their Own: A Celebration of Spanish Exile in the UK, 1939. For more information on the full programme go to <https://londres.cervantes.es/en/default.shtm>