

The 80th Anniversary of the Republican Exile of 1939: Lessons from and for a Modern World Symposium.

5th and 6th of December 2019, Scholars (Foster Building),
University of Central Lancashire,
Preston.

For more information, please contact Eduardo Tasis: ETasis@uclan.ac.uk

Please register via Ticket Source (free event):

<https://www.ticketsource.co.uk/uclanspanish/t-xxeaaz>

PROGRAMME

All presentations will take place in Scholars Restaurant. Refreshments and Lunch will be served in Scholars Bar. The photography exhibitions and concert will take place in Foster Social Space, located behind Scholars Restaurant.

Thursday 5th of December

- 09:30 - 10:00 Registration and Refreshments
- 10:00 - 10:15 Welcome and Opening
- 10:15 - 11:00 Irony and Humor in the Exile Narrative of Pere Calders, Dr Alicia Moreno (University of Central Lancashire / Edge Hill University)
- 11:00 - 11:45 Los escritores del exilio de 1939 en la poesía española contemporánea, Dr Javier Letrán (University of St Andrews).
- 12:00 - 13:00 Networking Lunch and Refreshments
- 13:00 - 13:45 Far from Home and Trapped in Time: a Suspended Temporality in José Rubia Barcia's Exile Writing, Dr David Miranda-Barreiro (Bangor University).
- 13:45 - 14:30 "Sin anclar en ninguna parte": The Topotón as a Liminalist Figure of Migrancy in the Work of Vicente Soto (1919-2011), Dr Isabel Soto (Universidad Nacional de Educación a Distancia, Spain).
- 14:30 - 15:00 Networking and Refreshments.
- 15:00 - 16:00 Resettling refugees in Lancashire: agency and power in the new displacement, Dr Saulo Cwerner and Refugee Integration Team (Lancashire County Council).
- 16:00 - 17:00 Interview with Angelina Muñiz-Huberman + Public Reading, Dr Angelina Muñiz-Huberman, interviewed by Dr Eduardo Tasis Moratinos (University of Central Lancashire).
- 17:00 - 18:00 Launch of Photography Exhibition: "Palabra e imagen en la razón poética de María Zambrano" + Refreshments, Sergio Romero Bueno, photographer (University of Strathclyde).
- 19:00 - 21:00 Diner

Friday 6th of December

- 09:30 - 10:00 Networking, Tea and Coffee
- 10:00 - 10:45 Matilde de la Torre, Refugee and Exile. An Approach to her Press Articles, Dr Luis Pascual Cordero Sánchez (Universidad Francisco de Vitoria & University of San Diego Madrid Center).
- 10:45 - 11:30 'La voz de Londres': Spanish Republican Exiles and the BBC World Service, Dr Eva Nieto McAvoy (Cardiff University).
- 11:30 - 12:15 The Path beyond Philosophy and Poetry: María Zambrano's Poetic Reason, Dr Beatriz Caballero Rodríguez (University of Strathclyde).
- 12:15 - 13:00 Networking Lunch and Refreshments
- 13:00 - 13:45 Algunas reconsideraciones sobre los literatos hispanomexicanos del exilio republicano, Prof. Eduardo Mateo Gambarte (IES Plaza de la Cruz / Universidad Pública de Navarra)
- 13:45 - 14:30 Lengua y poder: la RAE y los académicos exiliados, Dr David Pérez (Universidad de Valladolid).
- 14:30 - 15:15 Breaking the Cycle - How Dialogue Can Break down Barriers and Change Narratives, Liz Hibberd (Manchester City of Sanctuary).
- 15:15 - 15:45 Networking, Tea and Coffee
- 15:45 - 16:30 Third Sector Organisations (TSOs) and Public Space in London, Dr Carmen Caruso (Regent's Centre for Transnational Studies).
- 16:30 - 17:15 Threads of Exile. The Basque Children Evacuated from Bilbao to Southampton on May 23rd 1937: 'solo por tres meses [Only for Three Months]', Simon Martínez (The Association for the UK Basque Children)
- 17:15 - 18:15 "Suspiros de España" (Música para el exilio) [Sighs of Spain (Music for the Exiles)]. Closing Concert and Refreshments, David Pérez Rodríguez (Singer)